The property has a terraced garden, cellar, small warehouse and terrace. It is in excellent condition, with heating via a pellet stove and radiators. The entrance opens onto a welcoming living area, followed by a kitchen, two bedrooms, and a bathroom with a window and shower. Every window offers an open view of the greenery; the windows are double-glazed with aluminum. Thanks to its excellent exposure, the property is bright and sunny for most of the day and is open on three sides
